REMINDERS

Members of the College are expected at all times to show courtesy and consideration towards others and to behave in a way that upholds the reputation of the College.

Any breach of common sense or good manners may be considered to be a breach of the school rules.

REGISTRATION:

Registration occurs daily at 8.30am and 2.10pm. If you are late you must report to Reception where the registers are held and to your Housemother or the Lower School Secretary as appropriate.

THE COLLEGE DAY:

The College day runs from 8.30am to 5.30pm. Day pupils are expected to observe these times unless they have obtained specific permission from their HsM or Head of Lower School.

BOUNDS:

No-one may leave the College grounds during the College day, which includes break and lunchtime, on any weekday without the permission of a member of Common Room. No boarding pupil may leave the College grounds before breakfast, or after 5.30pm on any day, unless the HsM's permission has been obtained.

The path adjacent to St Oswald's, the area around Lower School and Lower School itself are out of bounds from 6.00pm until 8.00am.

SOCIAL EVENTS:

It is College policy to refuse permission for boarders to attend, and to discourage day pupils from attending, midweek pupil-arranged social events. Such events are unnecessary given a five day teaching week, serving only to detract from a sensible work ethos.

CARS:

Pupils may not bring motor vehicles to within 1 mile of the College without the prior permission of the Deputy Head (DHP). Doing so may lead to a permanent ban. Pupil drivers may not carry other pupils (other than siblings, in which case prior written consent must be with the DHP).
